WHAT'S NEW AND EXCITING?

I'm excited to share that I'm hard at work on my next novel, From Naples to Newark, a historical fiction story inspired by my grandparents' immigration journey from Italy to the United States in 1909.

Researching their lives has become a passion project, and I'm digging deep into family history, historical records, and local traditions to bring their story to life with authenticity and heart.

To further immerse myself in their world, I'll be traveling to Naples, Italy, this October to visit their hometown of Piedimonte Matese. With a little luck—and plenty of help from Google Maps—I hope to find the very home where they once lived. I can't wait to walk the same streets they traveled more than a century ago and experience firsthand the culture, landscape, and heritage that shaped their lives.

I'll be documenting this unforgettable journey on my website and social media, sharing photos, discoveries, and behind-the-scenes glimpses into the research process. I hope you'll follow along as I explore the places that inspired the next chapter of my writing journey! Stay tuned!!
